TWILIGHT CREATURES: Stories of Vampires, Werewolves and other Unspeakable Beings features 40 absorbing and fascinating short stories and legends from around the world, some of them translated to English for the first time. Martin Monreal provides an introductory essay, which situates each story in its proper context. TWILIGHT CREATURES includes famous and lesser known stories by Sheridan Le Fanu, M.R. James, Noemi Sutura, Bram Stoker, Guy de Maupassant, H. R. Haggard, Apuleius, Turgenev, H. Clifford, Baring-Gould, Saki, E. Peattie, Mary Freeman, Machen, Poe, Benson, Blackwood, Bierce, Wells, Dunsany, Conan Doyle, O'Donnell, H. James, W.W. Jacobs, Hawthorne, Stevenson, Gogol, and Chekhov, among others, plus a spooky selection of French, Eskimo, Argentine, Russian, Japanese and Chinese folktales. Explore the world of TWILIGHT CREATURES and by the time you are done reading the last piece, you might just agree with M.R. James view that, humanly speaking, all these many solemn events have a meaning for us, if our limited intelligence permitted of our disintegrating it. Martin Monreal is a writer, translator and illustrator. He studied Foreign Literature at the University of Buenos Aires, and attended Pratt Institute in New York. He has published poetry and short stories in Spanish, and is the editor of MASTERS OF HORROR AND SUSPENSE: 100 Short Stories, THE CANON OF THE SHORT STORY: 100 Stories, and BEST GHOST STORIES EVER (upcoming).
