

Ulica Zolwiego-Strumienia (Polish Edition)

This is beautifully written one year diary from Dallas, Texas with the authors recollections of her childhood, school and university years, travels abroad, meetings people with well recognized names and achievements. The authors impressions of the USA, Canada and Poland are presented. The book is warm, funny, sad, sarcastic, idealistic, melancholic and witty. Many animal stories and personal experiences from different places in Europe and North America are included. The book had many favorable reviews by magazines in Poland, and many letters from readers were sent to the publisher. People reacted very personally and wanted to share their life experiences with the author who touched their hearts.
