

A Charles Dickens Christmas

With music, wonderful performances, and lots of holiday cheer, The Colonial Radio Theatre on the Airs production of Dickens classics will become a holiday family favorite. This dramatization presents four classic holiday tales by the great Charles Dickens, complete with a full cast, music, and sound effects. In The Chimes, the spirits of the steeple bells appear to take Toby Veck on a New Years Eve journey, during which he discovers all that he has to be grateful for. In The Cricket on the Hearth, a cricket who chirps from the hearth of John and Dot Peerybingle appears to have supernatural powers and the ability to restore faith. A gentleman traveling on Christmas Eve tells a story about a soldier who finds the true meaning of forgiveness and redemption in The Seven Poor Travellers. Finally, The Colonial Radio Theatre on the Airs lush production of the immortal family favorite A Christmas Carol will enchant listeners for years to come.
