

Frank Merriwells Victories

Excerpt from Frank Merriwells Victories Bink Stubbs opened the ball at Niagara. He did not use a latch-key nor a jimmy - he opened it with his little cigarette. Merriwells Athletic Team had come on from the Adirondacks to Niagara shortly after defeating the University, or Wabeek Nine, in the finest game of baseball ever seen in the Great North Woods, and were quartered at a well-known hotel in the Falls city. They were there to see the wonders of Niagara and to meet the Niagara Rapids, a local athletic organization of great renown, in a field-sports battle which promised to be an extremely interesting affair; but Bink Stubbs and his cigarette started the excitement long before the time set for the big contest. Behold how great a matter a little fire kindleth! The fire on the end of Binks cigarette was but a glowing speck of red, yet it was mighty in its capacity for sensational destructiveness. The touch of that glowing speck of red raised Ned at that hotel. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
