

The Burgess Bird Book For Children (Illustrated, Indexed) (Classic Books for Children 46)

Burgess wrote this book to introduce birds to little children. He uses our old friend Peter Rabbit to acquaint children with a variety of birds as they return to Peter's neighborhood in the spring. Peter learns about birds' nesting habits, their feeding preferences, and their interactions with other wildlife. We meet Jenny Wren, Scrapper the King-bird, Redwing the Blackbird, and dozens more. An engaging introduction to birds for young children. It is a big book: in print, it had 444 pages. Louis Agassiz Fuertes produced 31 beautiful, full-color, full-page illustrations. They have been restored, and captions have been replaced. * This e-book is a true representation, from a high-definition scan of a pre-1923 print version of the book. Unlike other e-copies of the book, it was not produced by using Optical Character Recognition (OCR). OCR-scanning old books is seldom, if ever, error-free. This often results in an e-book with many **, ^^, >> and typographic errors when OCR can't read the word or punctuation correctly. * True representation means that if there are typographic, spelling, or grammatical errors that the editor judges to have minimal impact on the book's comprehension, they have been preserved; otherwise, they were corrected. * In other words, no changes or as few as possible have been made to either illustrations or text in order to bring you an e-book that is as close to the original as possible. Thornton Waldo Burgess (January 14, 1874 - June 5, 1965) was a conservationist and author of children's stories. Burgess loved the beauty of nature and its living creatures so much that he wrote about them for 50 years in books and his newspaper column, Bedtime Stories. He was sometimes known as the Bedtime Story-Man. By the time he retired, he had written more than 170 books and 15,000 stories for the daily newspaper column.
