

The Complete Short Stories of Emile Zola Volume 2

For the first time a publisher has put together in one set all the stories that Emile Zola wrote over his illustrious career as Frances leading novelist and as perhaps the most influential writer of the nineteenth century. With new translations by contemporary scholars and a collation designed by Zola himself, the complete set in four volumes, edited by Stephen R. Pastore, a leading authority in Zola scholarship will become the foundation of the study of Zolas short fiction for years to come.
