

Essay on Man and Other Poems

This volume collects many of Popes most celebrated poems, including The Rape of the Lock, Ode on Solitude, The Dying Christian to His Soul, Elegy to the Memory of an Unfortunate Lady, and Epistle to Dr. Arbuthnot. Popes ambitious Essay on Man is a cerebral poem that challenges the implications of scientific discovery and the extent of mans knowledge. Composed in heroic couplets, it inspired many of the worlds greatest thinkers, including Kant, Voltaire, and Rousseau. Given their extraordinary influence, it is no wonder Popes poems are still treasured by scholars today.
