

A Dolls House: (With Two Ibsen Classic Plays: Ghosts & An Enemy of the People)

A Dolls House Nora leaves her marriage and two children in this play about self discovery first performed in 1879. Ghosts Helen Alving is to dedicate an orphanage to her cheating late husband. She tells Pastor Manders that the orphanage was built with funds meant to be their sons inheritance. Enemy of the People Ibsen addresses the hypocritical nature and corruption of the political system but he was uncertain whether to call it a comedy or drama. The play premiered in 1882.
