

Scenes of Clerical Life

George Eliot was a prominent English author during the Victorian Era. Born Mary Ann Evans, she chose to change her name to George Eliot so that her works would gain more attention. Eliot would go on to write many classics such as The Mill on the Floss, Silmarillion, Middlemarch, and Daniel Deronda. Scenes of Clerical Life is a collection of three short stories that take place in a fictional town in the English Midlands. Each story concerns a different Anglican clergyman.
