A Sensation Novel - Classic Books - Lady Audleys Secret by Mary Elizabeth Braddon - Lady Audleys Secret is a sensation novel by Mary Elizabeth Braddon published in 1862. It was Braddons most successful and well-known novel. Critic John Sutherland (1989) described the work as the most sensationally successful of all the sensation novels. The plot centres on accidental bigamy which was in literary fashion in the early 1860s. The plot was summarised by literary critic Elaine Showalter (1982): Braddons bigamous heroine deserts her child, pushes husband number one down a well, thinks about poisoning husband number two and sets fire to a hotel in which her other male acquaintances are residing. Elements of the novel mirror themes of the real-life Constance Kent case of June 1860 which gripped the nation for years. A follow-up novel, Aurora Floyd, appeared in 1863. Braddon set the story in Ingestone Hall, Essex, inspired by a visit there. There have been three silent film adaptations, one UK television version in 2000, and three minor stage adaptations.
