

What Shall We Do Now? Over Five Hundred Games and Pastimes: A Book of Suggestions for Childrens Games and Employments (Classic Reprint)

What shall we do now! may come to be put less frequently. It is so easy for children to ask it, so hard for grown-up persons with many other matters to think about to reply to it satisfactorily. In the following pages, which have something to say concerning most of the situations in which children find themselves, at home or in the country, out of doors or in, alone or in company, a variety of answers will be found. No subject can be said to be exhausted; but the book is perhaps large enough. Everything which it contains has been indexed so clearly that a reader ought to be able to find what he wants in a moment. In this new edition an appendix of holiday games has been added, including games especially svtahle for parties or picnics on New Tear sD ay, Lincolns Birthday, 8t, Valentine sD ay, Washington sB irthday, Easter, A pril FooV sD ay, May Day, Fourth of July, Hallowe en, Thanksgiving and Christmas. There are, of course, many fortunate girls and boys who do not require any help whatever, who always know what to do now, and do it. For them some sections of this book may have little value. It is for that greater number of less resourceful children who whenever time is before them really are in need of counsel and hints, that it has been prepared.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
