

Salamambo

Gustave Flaubert was a French novelist born in 1821. He played a major role in the realist school in French literature. His best-known work was Madame Bovary, which led to a trial on the novels alleged immorality. Salamambo is an historical novel. The book intertwines history and fiction focusing on the revolt of mercenaries in Carthage in the 3rd century BC. After the First Punic War Carthage was unable to pay its mercenaries. Matho, a leader of the mercenaries, lusts after a priestess who is the daughter of an aristocratic general. Matho steals the sacred veil of Carthage, the Zaimph, prompting Salamambo to enter the mercenaries camp in an attempt to steal it back.
