

Funf Tage in Shanghai (German Edition)

Ein Reise-Verführer. Shanghai ist Multimillionen-Metropole und Dorf. Freundlich und abweisend. Glanzend und duster. Su? und bitter. Unvorstellbar reich und bettelarm. Die gro?te Stadt Chinas fasziniert ihre Gaste auf wirklich jede erdenkliche Weise. Einen Hauch jener Faszination versucht dieser Reiseführer dem Leser zu vermitteln. Vollständig, das zur Warnung, ist der schmale Band sicher nicht. Wer mehr als eine Woche in der Stadt verbringt, dem geht damit irgendwann der Stoff für neue Entdeckungen aus. Bei einem wenigstens funftägigen Stadttrip kommt jedoch garantiert keine Langeweile auf. Das Programm hat die Autorin ganz nach ihrem eigenen Geschmack ausgesucht. Lassen Sie sich an romantische Orte etwa direkt unter dem Huang-Pu-Fluss führen oder an Plätze, an denen das Shanghai der 1930-er Jahre erwacht. Gehen Sie mit der Autorin tanzen oder bestaunen Sie die Skyline Shanghais aus dem obersten Stockwerk des höchsten Hauses der Stadt direkt durch den Glasboden des Flurs. Enthält viele praktische Tipps und Routen-Vorschläge. Dazu Karten und 25 Bilder. Circa 50 Normseiten Textumfang.
