

The Mill on the Floss

The Mill on the Floss is a novel by George Eliot. The novel details the lives of Tom and Maggie Tulliver, a brother and sister growing up at Dorlcote Mill on the River Floss. Maggie Tulliver holds the central role in the book. The story begins when she is 9 years old, 13 years into her parents marriage. Her relationship with her older brother Tom, and her romantic relationships with Philip Wakem, a hunchbacked, sensitive, and intellectual friend, and with Stephen Guest, a vivacious young socialite in St. Oggs and assumed fiance of Maggies cousin Lucy Deane, constitute the most significant narrative threads. Various family crises, including bankruptcy, Mr. Tullivers rancorous relationship with Philip Wakems father, which results in the loss of the mill, and Mr. Tullivers untimely death, serve both to intensify Toms and Maggies differences and to highlight their love for each other.
