

The Scarlet Letter

The Scarlet Letter by Nathaniel Hawthorne begins in seventeenth-century Salem, Massachusetts, a Puritan settlement. A young woman is led from the town prison with her infant daughter, in her arms and the scarlet letter A on her breast. The scarlet letter A represents the act of adultery that she has committed; it is to be a symbol of her sin for all to see. She will not reveal her lover's identity, however, and the scarlet letter, along with her public shaming and banishment, is her punishment for her sin and her secrecy.
