

The Turkish fast, out of the Monthly Mercury, for December, 1697

THE 29 of the last Month, N. S. the new Aga of the Janizaries made his Publick Entry into Adrianople; but he had not above Ten or Twelve Captains of the Janizaries to attend him, all the rest who were at the Battel of Zenta being killd, or since dead of their Wounds. The next day the Grand Signior arrivd at the same City with his new prime Visir; but he rode directly to his Seraglio without entring into the City, not desiring they should make him any publick Reception, or that the Sultanness his Mother should meet him, as she intended, two Miles out of the City. The ill Success of the last Campagne has cast a deep Consternation into all the Provinces of his Empire which have heard the ill Tidings, insomuch that in some Places the People begin to murmur against the Grand Signior and his Government. For which Reason the Sultan has caused a General Fast, and Publick Prayers to be said throughout all his Dominions Alamode de Turqueske, which are to be accompanyd with Processions to Mecca, in hopes to appease the Anger of Heaven. To which purpose he has set forth the following Ordinance, wherein are many things to be observd relating to Mahometan Bigotry. This is an edition of a classical book first published in the eighteenth century.
