

Three Early Comedies: Loves Labors Lost, The Two Gentlemen of Verona, The Merry Wives of Windsor (Bantam Classic)

Three Early Comedies Loves Labors Lost Farce and fun follow when a young king and his three friends vow to give up women for a year just as a pretty princess and her three ladies-in-waiting arrive in a delightful play that ends with one of Shakespeares loveliest songs. The Two Gentlemen of Verona In this lyrical comedy, two friends are infatuated with the same woman, while a jilted girl disguised as a boy and a clownish servant with a raffish mutt set the scene for laughter and a timeless story of love. The Merry Wives of Windsor Shakespeares famous rogue, Falstaff, woos two married women with identical love letters and becomes the focus of a hilarious comedy when the women conspire to teach him a lesson.
