

White Nights (Annotated)

A whole moment of happiness! Is that too little for the whole of a mans life? White Nights is a novella by Russian writer Fyodor Dostoevsky (1821-1881). First published in 1848, it was translated in English by Constance Garnett (1861-1946) in 1918. White Nights is a masterpiece of romantic love. It tells the story of a young man who lives in St. Petersburg and uses to walk alone all night long. One night, he encounters a girl, alone as him, named Nastenka. The novella has been adapted for the screen numerous times, including the 2008 movie Two Lovers, starring Gwyneth Paltrow. This edition also contains:- a Dostoevskys extra-story, A Faint Heart (1846, translated in English by Constance Garnett in 1918);- a brief biographic profile of Dostoevsky written by Thomas Seccombe (1866-1923) in 1911.- a detailed bibliography of Dostoevskys novels and short stories.
